14h30 Propos introductifs

Dr. Anne-Elisabeth COURRIER

Associate Professor in Public Law, Nantes University, Visiting Fellow at the Emory Center for Ethics, Adunct at the Law Emory School of Law

14h45 « Ethical issues of medical diagnosis using AI: main points of the CCNE and CNPEN common opinion »

Dr. Claude KIRCHNER

PhD, Director of the French National Pilot Committee for Digital Ethics, Paris

15h15 « AI in medical diagnosis relies on health data platforms : complementary issues in digital ethics »

Dr. Jerome PERRIN

PhD, Member of the French National Pilot Committee for Digital Ethics, Paris

15h45 Pause

16h00 « Explainability and Responsibility: Where diagnostic AI will evolve beyond our expectations »

Dr. Paul Root WOLPE

PhD, Director, Center for Ethics | Emory University | Atlanta GA

16h30 « Consonance and Dissonance between Joint Opinion 141 and 'Ethics Guidelines for Trustworthy AI' (High-Level Exert Group on AI of the European Commission) »

Dr. Edward QUEEN

PhD, Director, Ethics and Servant Leadership Program and Director, EASL | Emory University | Atlanta GA

17h00 « AI and medical diagnosis: Canadian and Quebec perspectives »

Dr. Hazar HAIDAR

Research Member at the International Observatory on the Social Impact of AI and Digital Technology (OBVIA) - Quebec, Canada